

Reseller Partners

It pays to partner with Clean Communications. Our anti spam service The Email Laundry requires no administration and produces impressive margins. We have the simplest set up procedure in the anti spam industry.

Our dependable service has had 100% uptime since inception. We are the world's leading specialists at SMTP connection filtering, resulting in a robust and accurate anti spam service.

Benefits of partnering with Clean Communications.

- Lowest administrative overhead of any anti spam service.
- High recurring margins.
- Provision of a dedicated technical support partner.
- A leading technology solution at affordable rates.
- Generation of market interest in a variety of ways, PR and lead generation.
- Regular reseller competitions and bonuses.
- Assistance with sales opportunities.
- Increased cashflow by charging your customers annual fees while only paying us monthly.
- Our "Botnet Tracking" service can help you identify companies in your area who have email security problems.

Our reseller partners regularly claim we have the best customer service they have ever experienced. We like to think of ourselves as the anti spam department of your company.

We also offer different levels of partnership agreements for other Anti-spam service providers and Master resellers.

